

The progress of tobacco control in Western Australia:

achievements, challenges and hopes for the future

brings together a wealth of information on tobacco control for the first time and provides a fascinating insight into what has come to be regarded as one of the most effective areas
of public health advocacy in the State

The progress of tobacco control in Western Australia: achievements, challenges and hopes for the future

The publication examines the past 25 years of tobacco control in Western Australia, exploring the history of tobacco control, the current climate and emerging challenges for the future.

The progress of tobacco control in Western Australia: achievements, challenges and hopes for the future is a collaborative effort of some of the state's leading experts in tobacco control and public health.

In examining the various victories and losses of tobacco control and lessons learnt, it is a valuable resource to those in other areas of public health.

The publication is available for AUD $35.00 (inclusive of GST) per copy.
