Cancer Council Wig Service

Some people may lose part or all of their hair whilst having treatment for cancer. This hair loss is usually only temporary.

While some people are comfortable with wearing headwear such as hats or turbans, others may prefer to wear a wig.

Cancer Council WA provides a Wig Service which has an extensive range of new wigs in the latest styles and colours available at no cost, and for as long as required, during cancer treatment.

Hats, scarves and turbans, and patterns for turbans, are also available.

How to access our Wig Service

The Wig Service is located in Milroy Lodge, 15 Bedbrook Place, Shenton Park. Please see Milroy Lodge reception on arrival. The Wig Service is open Monday to Friday 9.30am to 3.30pm. The service is by appointment only.

Please ring (08) 9382 9333 to arrange a suitable time

Fully-trained volunteers are available to assist you with the selection, fitting and management of your wig.

If you have already lost your hair, please bring a photograph prior to your hair loss to assist with the selection. It also helps if you can wear your normal make up, including eyebrow definition.

For country clients

Those who live in the Bunbury Region may access 'Dot's Place', Cancer Council South West Support Centre, 62 Forrest Ave, Bunbury. Mondays by appointment only on 9721 9555.

If you can't make it to us, we provide a mail order service for country clients.

Please complete and return the attached form and if possible enclose a recent photo and snippet of hair.

A wig will be posted to you. Should it not be satisfactory, please let us know and we will send you further choices.

Purchasing a wig

If you would like to purchase a wig from a local retailer you may be eligible for a rebate:

- Assistance towards the cost of purchasing a wig may be provided by your treating hospital. Check with the hospital's Social Work Department.
- Health Care Card, Child Disability or Senior's Card holders. Contact the Social Worker at your treating hospital.
- Private Health Insurance. Contact your health fund to determine your eligibility for a rebate.
- Veteran's Affairs patients. contact the Department of Veterans' Affairs on (08) 9366 8222 or 1800 555 254 for country callers.
