Nutrition and Palliative Care What Matters Most?

Virtual

Designed for

Doctors, Registered Nurses, Enrolled Nurses, Allied Health Professionals, Facility Managers, Pastoral Care Workers, Aboriginal Health Workers

Overview

Palliative care prides itself in providing quality of life for patients with a life limiting illness. Food can be seen as an integral part of living, and part of carers caring for their loved ones. Join us to hear about Nutrition in Palliative care, the stages and nutrition management of your patients. This will be delivered from a Speech pathologist and Dietitian perspective.

Learning areas

- What is the role of a Speech pathologist and Dietitian?
- How is nutrition managed during each End-of-Life phase for your patient?
- How is quality of life improved?

Presented by

Nicole Leggett, Complex Care Coordinator
Armada Kalamunda Group
